Financial Assistance

Who Can Apply:

Any Burlington resident who feels that his/her financial situation might prohibit his /her participation or that of a family member, in a BYSC soccer program may apply.

Player Assistance Eligibility:

The Fee Assistance Program is limited to Burlington residents and is restricted to the Club Registration Fee only. Fees for Rep Programs or charged by teams are not eligible for fee assistance from the Club. Applicants qualifying for assistance are restricted to a maximum of $300 annually for all soccer programs.

Player assistance is awarded based on need, using the Statistics Canada Low Income Cut-Off (LICO) level. The total family household annual income must be below the LICO to be approved for the Recreation Fee Assistance Program. Proof of income must be provided by all members of the household that are 18 years of age or older at the time of application.

Proofs of Income Required:

1. Notice of Assessment: You must present a 2017 "Notice of Assessment" or "Notice of Reassessment" for each family member 18 years and over that lives with you at your Burlington residential address. Family refers to all persons living in the same dwelling and related by blood, marriage, common-law relationships or adoption. The total before tax (gross) income is shown on line 150 of your Revenue Canada "Notice of Assessment" or "Notice of Reassessment." A Tax Return summary not accepted. The amount shown on line 150 for each family member over the age of 18 is added together to determine eligibility.
2. For each applicant who has income such as social security, disability or death benefits, pension, adoption assistance, public assistance, or unemployment a copy of the benefits statement or letter from the provider that states the amount, frequency and duration of the benefit payment.
3. For each applicant who is relying on alimony or child support as income a copy of divorce or other court decree; or separation agreement or other written agreement filed with the court that states the amount and period of time over which it will be received.
